About the Owners:

Meredith Hill, President and Co-Owner

Meredith started Hills of Africa Travel, Inc. in July 2000 as a way of productively channeling her two passions travel and Africa. She left a 10-year career in banking to commit full-time to the venture. Married to a Zimbabwean, Meredith has traveled extensively throughout southern Africa for both personal and business reasons. Meredith recently earned a South African Specialist certification by the South African Tourist Board.

Sandy Salle, Director and Co-Owner

A Zimbabwean native, Sandy was born and raised in southern Africa. Sandy has traveled extensively throughout the region. Sandy left a 12-year career in advertising to return to her true love, Africa. Among other qualifications, Sandy brings to Hills of Africa Travel tremendous organization skills thanks to years of organizing leisure and business travel for advertising agency VIPs.
